On Nov. 30, Multi-Housing News held its 17th annual Excellence Awards ceremony, honoring some of the year's most outstanding multifamily developments, business strategies and professionals. During the event, hosted at Resource Furniture in New York City, MHN awarded a total of 87 gold, silver and bronze awards in 34 different categories.

Daryl Carter, chairman & CEO of Avanath Capital Management, took home the editorially determined Lifetime Achievement Award, recognizing his contribution to the industry during 41 years in multifamily investment, development and operations. The judges named J. David Heller, president, CEO & co-founder of The NRP Group, as Executive of the Year.

This year's program was sponsored by Resource Furniture, Cristaux, Intellihot, American Express, Rently, Arbor and Yardi Systems. The panel of industry experts judging the award submissions included:
